Date : 10.2.2006.

PC

1. The matter was heard at length on 8.2.2006 and in my order of the said date, I have clearly mentioned that there was no substance on merits in the application. Since an offer of Rs.2,00,000/- for settling the matter was made on that date, the matter was adjourned to see if there was likelihood of settlement particularly as the Complainant had agreed to settle at the said amount.

2. Today a statement was made by the Advocate for the applicant that her client was willing to pay only Rs.20,000/-. In the circumstances, no settlement is possible. On merits, I already heard the matter and found no substance. Hence, application is dismissed.
